- ❖ Participation is especially encouraged from fellows, DM/DrNB residents, and early-career intensivists

Case Requirements:

- ❖ Cases must demonstrate clinically significant radiological findings with clear clinico-radiologic correlation
- ❖ Preference will be given to unique, rare, or diagnostically challenging cases that offer strong educational value
- ❖ Cases must have been managed between July 2024 and August 2025

Submission Guidelines:

- ❖ Submit a case abstract limited to 500 words in PDF or Word format

6TH TO 9TH NOVEMBER 2025

HYDERABAD INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION CENTRE-HICC

Each abstract must include:

- ❖ A brief but unique past medical and social history
- ❖ A concise clinical course and management summary
- ❖ Key radiological images (e.g., X-ray, CT, MRI, Ultrasound) embedded in the document and appropriately labeled
- ❖ Clinico-radiologic correlation and key learning points

Must not include:

- ❖ Any patient identifiers

Other Important Details:

- ❖ Only one case submission per participant is allowed
- ❖ Each institution may submit a maximum of three cases
- ❖ A mentor (consultant or faculty-level physician) should be associated with each submission.
- ❖ All abstracts will undergo review, and a subset will be selected for presentation
- ❖ Selected participants will be notified and given further instructions to prepare a full case presentation with images for PediCriticCon 2025
- ❖ Patient consent must be appropriately obtained, and no patient-identifying information should appear in any submission or presentation

Presentation Format:

- ❖ Selected participants will be invited to present during PediCriticCon 2025
- ❖ Each presenter will have 8 minutes for their case presentation, followed by 2 minutes of discussion
- ❖ Winners will be announced during the conference

Submission Deadline:

- ❖ The last date for receipt of case abstracts is 25th September 2025
- ❖ Let's make the Clinico-Radiology Correlation session an exciting platform for sharing knowledge and showcasing clinical acumen!
